GREAT BATTLE NOW IN PROGRESS FIRST REAL CRISIS OF WAR

General Joffre Seems to Have Been Justified in Falling Back to Present Favorable Position—Russians Continue in Their Attempt to Envelop Austrian Army Which May Soon Meet Another Lemberg—Germans Active in Belgium

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
LONDON, Sept. 8.—British hopes in the final result in the great battle now being waged along a front of some 160 miles from rough speaking, Paris to Verdun, run extremely high. From excellent authority a well-informed correspondent understands that numerical superiority which hitherto has been so great an asset in German calculations, no longer exists, and that in fact the allied forces are equal to, even if not somewhat superior, to the German armies.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The British and French forces north and east of Paris have had further success against the German invasion according to the official bulletin issued today, while in Italy, the Italians continue with considerable success their attempt to envelop and defeat the Austrian army in the Trent area, under General Cadorna's leadership.

For the moment at least interest centres in the campaign in France for the fact that the battle of the Marne was the first real crisis of the war and it is now being fought on the same ground.

According to a bulletin issued by the French war office, the German advance southward from the Marne has been checked, and the roads and railways are more secure to the French Government than they would have been further north.

There have been many rumors of Joffre's personal departure from the front, but it is said that he is still there, and that he is in the best of health.

WAR NEWS SUMMARY

Official reports from both Paris and London indicate successful movements at least for the time being by the allied armies against the Germans. London reports that the British have pushed the opposing forces back on the Marne, and that the allies are maintaining ground along the line of the Marne.

Wounded soldiers have been reached Paris tell of the severity of the fighting in the Champagne region and of very heavy losses. With hundreds of thousands of men engaged on both sides the battle is now in fact going to the end of Paris promises to be the most important of the campaign up to the present.

The Russian army is still engaged in three combats with the Austrian forces in the Russian district, Russian Poland. Fighting is almost continuous and there is no sign of a truce has been determined.

France announces that it is sending reserves to Morocco to release regulars and there for service with the army in France.

Christoph Pankratz, the militant suffragette leader, has ranged himself on the side of the prime minister in the present official condition of the country. She says that the militant women are ready to take their place in the line or help save the nation in any way deemed most advisable.

MILLIONS ENGAGED IN GIGANTIC BATTLE TO EAST OF PARIS

Germans While Retreating Are Offering Sternest Resistance and Have Delivered Several Piercing But Unsuccessful Counter Attacks—Progress of Allies Has Been Exceptionally Difficult But War Generally in Their Favor—Prisoners Are Taken Back to Paris

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
PARIS, Sept. 8. (10.30 p.m.)—Accounts of wounded soldiers who reached Paris this afternoon indicate that the result of three days' fighting in the Champagne region has been most favorable to the allies, but not as good as expected. They say the German losses in killed were enormous, and that a great number of prisoners were taken. One French officer estimates the prisoners at 20,000. The Champagne districts include parts of the departments of Marne, Aube and Haute Marne.

PARIS, Sept. 8. (12.40 a.m.)—The battle with retreating before the allies has offered the sternest resistance, and the progress of the allies has been exceptionally difficult. The fighting today extended along both the Marne and Aisne rivers. In the Champagne region, the German forces have engaged in a strong offensive on both sides of the Marne.

According to those who are in position to give authentic information the casualties have been great on both sides. The German losses were estimated at twenty-four hours. The French losses were estimated at twenty-four hours. The French losses were estimated at twenty-four hours.

How She Acquired "Famine Charm"

A newlywed couple met beside the river. The young man was a handsome fellow, and the young woman was a beautiful girl. They had just been married, and were on their honeymoon. They were walking along the river bank, and the young man was talking to the young woman about the "famine charm" that he had acquired. The young woman was looking at him with a curious expression, and the young man was looking at her with a mischievous grin. The young man was telling her that he had acquired the "famine charm" from a witch in the forest. The young woman was looking at him with a skeptical expression, and the young man was looking at her with a determined expression. EDMONTONIAN TELLS OF REVOLTING BRUTALITY BY THE GERMANS IN BELGIUM

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Finch Return to City After Visit to Belgium, and Relate Pathetic Instances of Monstrous Outrages Perpetrated by Germans—Women and Children Boycotted and Clashed to Death

Bert Finch, manager of the Edmonton office of the National Red Cross, returned to the city from Europe, accompanied by Mrs. Finch, who was in Belgium, and with whom she was visiting in Brussels when war was declared, and that unhappy country over-run by the German hordes.

Mr. and Mrs. Finch sailed from Liverpool for Montreal on the White Star liner Canada, on August 21st. Previous to that date they had been in Belgium and England, and witnessed many distressing incidents connected with the invasion of Belgium by the Germans.

Horror of Belgium.

"I need not tell you of the marvels of the horror of Belgium," said Mr. Finch to the Bulletin staff. "I need not tell you of the horrors of Belgium, for you know them all.
